

JOIN US AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE TODAY IN THE LIVES OF STUDENTS

LIVE UNITED

United Way of the National Capital Area is calling on the community to help provide 5,000 NEW books to ensure low-income middle school students have access to the grade-appropriate books they need to advance their reading skills and improve academic outcomes. Books collected will benefit our community schools across the region.

4 WAYS TO GET INVOLVED:

- Sponsor a child, class, or grade by completing the Stuff the Bus Book Drive Sponsor Request Form at: unitedwaynca.org/individual-book-drive.
- Host a Stuff the Bus Book Drive at your workplace, house of worship or through your sorority or fraternity by registering your group at: unitedwaynca.org/group-book-drive.
- Make an online monetary donation and we will do the book shopping for you! unitedwaynca.org/donate
- Get the word out to help promote the book drive by sharing the Stuff the Bus Book Drive web page with friends and family via email and social media platforms. unitedwaynca.org/bookdrive

CONTACT VOLUNTEER ENGAGEMENT AT: volunteer@uwnca.org with questions and to arrange a date (Monday, January 27 – Friday, January 31, 2020) to deliver books to United Way NCA offices (Washington, DC or Vienna, VA).

WHAT:
5,000 NEW Books

WHO:
Middle School Students

WHEN:
Jan. 2 - Jan. 31, 2020